

Ned Carter and Scout Smith

Mrs. Carr

9th Grade Literature and Composition (Honors)

29 March 2019

Script: Let's Go for a Walk

FADE IN: Who Let the Dogs Out

FADE OUT: Who Let the Dogs Out

SCOUT Hey, guys, I'm Scout

NED And I'm Ned

BOTH And we are the Dog Duo of the Dogs' Life Podcast!

SCOUT Each week we bring you advice, tips, and inspiration...

NED Neatly packaged into 7 highly-efficient minutes. Today we are going to talk about what makes a great walk...

SCOUT Yeah, Ned and I, well, I think we are spoiled by most standards. We go on a nature hike about 350 days per year. No, I'm not kidding...nearly EVERY. SINGLE. DAY. of the year!

NED Yeah, she's really not kidding. After getting bounced from shelter to shelter and owner to owner, I ended up getting adopted by our guardian, Steve, and he really does take us out nearly every day. I didn't believe it at first; I thought it was a fluke. But after a few weeks, I found myself conditioned to run to the door right around 5:00. So what makes a good dog walk, Scout?

SCOUT Well, first, you've got to have the right environment—the right place to walk. Next, you've got to have the right activities while you are out on that walk—ironically, it's really not just about walking. And last, you need a great guardian—and we are going interview ours today!

NED But...first...about the environment...

FADE IN: Instrumental music

FADE OUT: Instrumental music

SFX: Birds chirping and a bubbling stream

NED Nothing makes for a better walking experience than walking in just the right place.