

Presentation Rubric – Social Issues Research

Name _____

Content: _____ / 50

Presenter offers a comprehensive and effective report on progress made toward answering his/her research question; illuminating the research question is clearly the focus of the presentation.	_____ Exceeds (20-19) _____ Approaches (15-13)	_____ Meets (18-16) _____ Does not meet (12-10)
Presenter effectively incorporates appropriate and credible research sources.	_____ Exceeds (15-14) _____ Approaches (11-10)	_____ Meets (13-12) _____ Does not meet (9-8)
Presenter offers insightful interpretation and synthesis of research sources, leading to thoughtful and reasonable conclusions.	_____ Exceeds (15-14) _____ Approaches (11-10)	_____ Meets (13-12) _____ Does not meet (9-8)

Organization: _____ / 30

Clear introductory segment/slide addresses topic, research question, and relevant background information.	_____ Exceeds (10) _____ Approaches (7-6)	_____ Meets (9-8) _____ Does not meet (5)
Main points and findings of the research build on one another, creating a logical and cohesive progression.	_____ Exceeds (10) _____ Approaches (7-6)	_____ Meets (9-8) _____ Does not meet (5)
Final segment/slide offers reasonable conclusions, making it clear to the audience that the presentation is complete.	_____ Exceeds (10) _____ Approaches (7-6)	_____ Meets (9-8) _____ Does not meet (5)

Presence and Polish: _____ / 20

Presenter's pace and volume are appropriate; presenter engages with the audience, makes eye contact, and avoids reading directly from screen/notes.	_____ Exceeds (7) _____ Approaches (5)	_____ Meets (6) _____ Does not meet (4)
Presentation includes proper MLA parenthetical citations, a Works Cited slide, and is free of distracting careless errors.	_____ Exceeds (7) _____ Approaches (5)	_____ Meets (6) _____ Does not meet (4)
Text and graphics are clear and effective; slides are neither dominated by text nor too sparse.	_____ Exceeds (6) _____ Approaches (4)	_____ Meets (5) _____ Does not meet (3)